REPUBLICANS GATHERING FROM ALL PARTS OF THE STATE.

DATE OF THE CONVENTION LIKELY TO BE AU-

Republican politicians from all parts of the State began to gather in the Fifth Avenue Hotel eeting of the Republican State Committee. which will be held at noon to-day in Parlor D R of the hotel. Among the State Committeemen who had appeared up to a late hour last evening vere Charles W. Hackett, of Utica, chairman; John F. Parkhurst, of Bath; George W. Aldridge, of Rochester, State Superintendent of Public John R. Hazel, of Buffalo: Francis Hendricks, of Syracuse; Colonel George W. Dunn, of hamton; William L. Proctor, of Ogdensburg; V. Collins, of Troy; Congressman Benjamin B. Odell, jr., of Newburg; Frank S. Wetherbee, of Port Henry; Henry A. Bruner, of Albion, and Villiam Barnes, jr., of Albany. Abraham Gru-Thurlow Weed Barnes and ex-Postmaster Cornelius Van Cott, members for this city, were on hand among the up-country statesmen.

everal of the committeemen who had been in sultation with Mr. Platt at No. 49 Broaday, in the course of the day, circulated the information about the corridors of the Fifth Ave-State Convention, and that the committee today would designate Tuesday, August 25, as the and Saratoga as the place, of meeting. me members of the committee, however, favor earlier date, taking the ground that the National campaign cannot be started too soon in this State. Mr. Parkhurst, of Bath, was of the opinion that there should be no delay, and favored holding the convention to nominate the candidates for Governor and Lieutenant-Governor at least two weeks sooner than had been ottled upon by Mr. Platt. This would make the date about August 11, instead of August 25. Mr. Parkhurst said that the business of counteracting the silver craze in the agricultural districts would be a serious one, and that no time should be lost in getting to work. "The sooner we meet this silver question squarely, and show e people that we are not afraid of it," he said, "the sooner it will begin to die out." Ex-Senator J. Sloat Fassett was also for forcing the fighting and wanted no postponement. "Let us nominate our State candidates, and begin the battle at once," Mr. Fassett said.

Candidates for Governor attracted by the meeting of the State Committee were plentiful in the city yesterday. Besides candidates who are city yesterday. Besides candidates who are members of the committee, including ex-Scnator Hendricks, of Syracuse; Congressman Odell, of Newburg; Superintendent Aldridge, of Rochester; Chairman Hackett, of Utica; ex-Postmaster Van Cott, of New-York; William W. Goodrich, of Brooklyn; General Wiley, of Catskill; Mr. Parkhurst, of Bath; Colonel Dunn, of Binghamton, and Mr. Witherbee, of Port Henry, there were in town Speaker Fish, of Garrisons; ex-Senator Fassett and Colonel Archibald E. Baxter, of Elmira; Congressman Frank S. Black, of Troy; George W. Southwick, of Albany; C. R. B. Mahany, of Buffalo; Senators John Raines, of Canandaigua; Timothy E. Ellsworth, of Niagara, and Clarence Lexow, of Nyack. Before morning several more aspirants for Governor Morton's place will arrive, bringing their booms and probably some home "talent" along with them. Mr. Fish kept close to Mr. Platt yesterday, and lost no opportunity to spread the Information that the Speaker was the "old man's candidate."

Ex-Senator Hendricks was accompanied by Carroll E. Smith and M. E. Driscoll, of Onondaga County. Their appearance revived the rumor that the Belden people, of Syracuse, who early embraced the cause of Major McKinley in that part of the State, mean to renew their fight for recognition at the hands of the State Committee rs of the committee, including ex-Se embraced the cause of Major McKinley in that part of the State, mean to renew their fight for recognition at the hands of the State Committee to-day. Senator Hobart Krum, of Schoharle; ex-Railroad Commissioner Isaac N. Baker, fr., of Washington County; ex-Justice Clarence W. Meade, Wilbur F. Wakeman and Dwight A. Lawrence were among Republicans who were taking an interest in the political situation in the hotel corridors last evening.

Resolutions strongly indorsing the nomination of McKinley and Hobart, and earnestly approving the platform adopted at St. Louis, will receive the sanction of the committee to-day. The resolutions are expected to take advanced ground on the money question and vigorously condemn the silver heresy, setting an example for the State Convention to follow.

Ex-Senator Warner Miller is a member of the

for the State Convention to rollow.

Ex-Senator Warner Miller is a member of the Advisory Committee of the State Committee. It was said last evening that he would be present in that capacity to-day, if not as a candidate for Governor. The candidate reported to have already many delegates in his net was State Superintendent Aldridge. Mr. Aldridge, it was said, has been devoting his attention to the canal counties for several months, with results of a character to make him an important factor in that capacity to-day, if not as a the State Convention.

The League committee had proposed attending the Republican State Committee meeting to-morrow, but shandoned that idea this afternoon, as it was known that Platt and his men would probably do whatever Hendricks asked. Hendricks and his followers started for New-York this afternoon.

He predicted better things for the Republican party of this State, for McKinleyism did not mean bossism. He pointed out that, despite the importance of the money question, the paramount issue was the tariff. The meeting was closed with rousing cheers for McKinley and a vote of thanks to Mr. Close.

THE OPERA FIRM INCORPORATED.

ABBEY, SCHOEFFEL & GRAU READY TO BEGIN BUSINESS-RUMORS ABOUT COVENT GARDEN.

Albany, July 6.-Among the companies incor porated to-day was that of Abbey, Schoeffel & Grau (Limited), organized to maintain and operate theatres and give operatic and dramatic representations in New-York, Boston and other cities. The capital is $500,000, of which $200,000 is preferred stock. The directors are Henry E. Abbey, Maurice Grau, William Steinway, Robert Dunlap, Edward Lauterbach and Thomas F. Fowler, of New-York City, and John B. Schoeffel, of Boston. Messrs. Abbey, Schoeffel and Grau subscribe for all of the common stock in equal shares. Mr. Steinway takes 200 shares of the preferred stock, and Mr. Dunlap

Of the directors mentioned Messrs, Steinway, Dunlap and Fowler were the committee of the creditors of the old firm of Abbey, Schoeffel & Grau who had charge of the plan for the reorganization. Mr. Fowler is said to represent the interests of Sir Henry Irving in relation to the company. Messrs. Abbey, Schoeffel and Grau to be the managing directors of the company. The details of the arrangements and plans of the new corporation of Abbey, Schoeffel & Grau have been published more than once in these columns. imors are still rife, however, as to the full scope of its operations. It is organized, of course, for tion, and there seems to be no grow visible in London. It would be easy to run the house, it is represented, in connection with the Metropolitan, as the two opera seasons are at different times of the year and the same artists could be employed, as they are indeed now, for the most part. The conditions under which the new company is formed, as already mentioned, would prevent Abbey, Schoeffel & Grau from having anything to do with Covent Garden as individuals, and if anything were to be done, apparently, it would have to be done by the new corporation itself. There has also been a report that Maurice Grau alone would be connected with Covent Garden, and this statement is open to the same comment as the one that Abbey. Schoeffel & Grau would operate the house. Mr. Abbey is now out of town. When he was questioned about the Covent Garden reports a few days ago he replied that he had not even heard the rumors which were referred to.

HE DASHED BETWEEN A RUNAWAY HORSE AND A CROWDED TROLLEY-CAR.

Roundsman Thompson, of the Tremon mounted squad, was on post last night at Websterave and Jacob-st., a light wagon came dashing along Jacob-st. toward the avenue, drawn by a runaway horse. A trolley-car bound uptown, which was crowded with passengers, was approaching from the opposite direction. The roundsman, seeing that a collision was inevitable unless the runaway could be stopped, dashed into the intervening space between the trolley-car and the fractious animal at the risk of his lie. He succeeded in capturing the runaway, but not before his own horse was pretty badly injured. The runaway horse belonged to John Sullivan, of the Macomb's Dam Bridge.

Judge Shutter decided adversely. Then Captain Ker moved that the order be changed so as to read "including this day." This was done, and the captain's unexpired term is reduced one day. This afternoon he was taken to the Eastern Penitentiary.
